1868, the Rothschild family became attached to the Bordeaux vineyard over the course of the time. Successive generations have passed on their requirements and their perseverance to make the best of an exceptional terroir. This permanent search for excellence has allowed to refine the knowledge of the Lafite terroir.

The great wine today is the expression of this know-how accumulated over the years.

Les Domaines Barons de Rothschild \(Lafite\) have made this experience a model for development.

The successive acquisitions of Château Duhart-Milon \(Pauillac\), Château Rieussec \(Sauternes\), and Château l'Evangile \(Pomerol\) were realized with the Motivation to rekindle the flame of these great dormant terroirs.
