

Thursdays at Legrand Concert : Mathieu Rosaz chante Barbara

Thursday
27
MARCH

20H30 | 20,00 € per person/

Featuring: Mathieu Rosaz (voice and piano), Michel Glasko (accordion)

Mathieu Rosaz is a Parisian singer-songwriter-composer with five albums to his credit, including two that revisit the best of Barbara (2003 'coup de coeur' award by the Académie Charles Cros). He has also been featured in a number of shows and some hundred concerts from Japan to Quebec, including France, Germany and Italy. This discreet artist avoids media overexposure to pursue his eclectic career tastefully. He will sing and play a selection by Barbara on the piano accompanied by Michel Glasko on accordion.

In association with the wine grower:

Laurent Combier

Domaine Combier, Pont-de-l'Isère 26600

Laurent Combier is one of the most brilliant wine growers of the northern Rhône Valley, thanks in great part to his family heritage blended with his own personal touch. As a third-generation wine grower, he developed the estate and attained the status of independent wine grower, and is now investing in organic agriculture.

His regularity and the constantly increasing level of quality of his wines mark him as one of the leading authorities of the Crozes-Hermitage AOC.

Wines tasted:

Crozes-Hermitage 2012 red

Crozes-Hermitage Clos des Grives 2011 red

Participation: € 20
